

The Counseling Team International 41750 Rancho Las Palmas Dr. Ste #O-2 Rancho Mirage, CA 92270

Ph: (800)651-1021 Fax: (760) 636-0437 Email: deaeapbilling@thecounselingteam.com

CONSENT TO USE TELETHERAPY OR TELEPHONE SESSIONS

There are many types of telehealth platforms.
Your clinician(Clinician name)	will be using the platform(s) and/or format of:
(Cimician Hame)
(Platform/format name)
This is / is not a HIPAA compliant format	:. and privacy, HIPAA compliance, dropped calls, and o issues. At the present time, there is no definitive evic (Business Associate Agreement) is required. Although	rms. The primary concerns of telehealth sessions are confidentiality other potential interruption(s) of communication due to technology idence that telehealth meets HIPAA security requirements and BAA is most telehealth programs are HIPAA compliant, using these release informs you of that risk as well as releases TCTI from any new regulations have added importance to the BAA. teletherapy programs don't always provide a protoc logging information to keep records. Breach notification or even an attempt to gain access to the session. Interest of the session in the session.	co enforce HIPPA and added more regulations and penalties. These . Several experts have cited HITECH Act to raise a concern that col for trail audits or breach notification. Trail audits are a means of ation relates to whenever data was accessed by unauthorized people teractive technology platforms are supposed to notify the rs. However, not all platforms have or use the mechanism.
need appropriate audio and visual equipment and permission is required for either party to record the	(client and clinician) are considered a treatment room. Both parties privacy. Both parties will take precaution to maintain privacy and esession. All HIPPA requirements apply to the session except when ed for a possible confidentiality breach or HIPPA violation.
After reading the above, I agree to receive telehealth informed consent for the use of telehealth and I take	I have read the above description regarding the use of teletherapy. h counseling and I understand the risks associated. I give my e FULL responsibility in the event of a breach of confidentiality or II from any liability associated with the clinician's use of teletherapy.
Client Name (Printed):
Client Signature:	Date
Clinician Signature	Date